WILLIAMS, who had previously pled guilty to a one-count indictment charging him with conspiracy to distribute 5 grams or more of crack cocaine, was sentenced to 240 months’ imprisonment, 10 years’ supervised release, and was fined $300.

The violation took place between August 2003, and April 18, 2005, in Williamson County. Co-defendant BARBARA J. TIMMONS, a/k/a “BJ,” was previously sentenced to 135 months’ imprisonment for her role in the crack cocaine conspiracy.

In addition, the Williamson County States Attorney’s Office assisted throughout the investigation. Under the Project Safe Neighborhoods Initiative, federal, state, and local law enforcement and prosecutors are working together to prosecute drug dealers, felons in possession of firearms, and criminals that use firearms to commit violent offenses or drug trafficking offenses.

The case was assigned to Assistant United States Attorney Amanda A. Robertson for prosecution.
